

Tattoo deposit and rescheduling policy

Studio and artist: [Names and contact].

Policy date: [Date].

Read and agree to this policy before booking.

Deposit and design work

Booking deposit: [Amount or percentage and currency].

The deposit [is / is not] applied to the final session balance.

Separate drawing or design fee: [Amount and what it covers].

Design changes, redraws and included revisions: [Terms].

Estimated session price and what may change it: [Details].

Rescheduling

Give at least [number] hours notice through [contact method].

Allowed date changes: [Number and conditions].

Notice outside that window: [Reviewed deposit treatment and rebooking terms].

If the studio changes or cancels the appointment: [Refund or alternative-date process].

No-shows and late arrival

No-show rule: [Definition and deposit treatment].

Late-arrival threshold: [Minutes].

When a late arrival prevents the appointment proceeding: [Reschedule process and applicable fees].

Exceptions and emergencies are handled through [contact process].

Refunds

Refund eligibility, request method and time frame: [Locally reviewed terms].

Do not use a non-refundable label to override statutory consumer rights.

Explain the treatment of deposits and drawing fees separately.

Identification and suitability

Age and identification requirement: [Local requirement].

Required consent and screening process: [Studio process].

This booking policy is not medical advice, informed consent or a health-screening form.

Touch-ups and acknowledgement

Touch-up inclusion, booking window and exclusions: [Terms].

Client acknowledges receiving the policy before paying: [Name and date].

Artist/studio acknowledgement: [Name and date].

Have a professional review consumer-law terms for your jurisdiction.